

Player of the Year

Until 2016, the LLESA Golf NG Player of the Year award was given to the player who earned the most prize money over the calendar year. With the institution of the Livermorium Cup in 2016, the award is given to the player who earned the most number of Lv Cup points over the year.

Club Champion

The LLESA Golf NG Club Championship is a 36-hole gross score competition (i.e., no handicaps are used). The top four players after the first round of 18 holes advance to the second round, and the two-round gross scores are added. The player with the low gross total is crowned the Club Champion.

Match Play Champion

The LLESA Golf NG Match Play Championship is an annual summer event that was started in 2009. Prior to 2016, this event used an elimination-only format, with players assigned to brackets according to handicap. Round robin group play was instituted in 2016, with the top-8 players advancing to the quarterfinals for elimination play. The competition is handicapped and each match consists of 18 holes of match play.
